

THEN AND NOW

Photograph courtesy of Keith Gornall

FELL FOOT

In earlier times, in the area then known as Fell Foot, there were two houses, opposite each other at the top of the lane from which the track up Parlick begins. Fell Gate was the property on the west side and opposite was Nan House. The latter - now known as Fell Foot - is the surviving house.

